1988-1999: Jeantet & Associés

Main areas of practice

Since the beginning of her career, Nathalie Meyer Fabre has developed a practice specialized in the resolution of international commercial disputes.

She has acted as counsel in many international arbitrations, both ad hoc and institutional, in France and abroad, concerning in particular industrial and engineering projects, energy, construction, joint-ventures and shareholders' disputes, hotel management contracts, insurance law, distribution and agency agreements, commodities trading and sales of goods, military equipment.

Nathalie Meyer Fabre is frequently appointed as arbitrator in institutional or ad hoc arbitration proceedings, in international or domestic matters (more details below).

She also represents her clients before the French courts in cross-border litigation relating in particular to product liability and industrial risks, the termination of business relationships or contractual negotiations, unfair competition, post-acquisition disputes, and the enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitral awards.

She advises and represents foreign States and public entities before French courts and authorities.

Nathalie Meyer Fabre regularly acts as legal expert on French law in foreign proceedings, and for the taking of evidence or service of documents in France in aid of foreign proceedings.
