

Marine Koenig

Associate, admitted to the Paris Bar in February 2018

Nationality: French

Languages: French, English, Spanish

T.: +33 1 44 38 72 30 – mkoenig@meyerfabre.com

FIELDS OF ACTIVITY

Marine Koenig's main practice areas are international arbitration and international commercial litigation.

Marine acts as counsel for French and foreign companies in industrial projects and construction disputes.

Prior to joining the firm, Marine trained in the arbitration groups of U.S. and British law firms where her practice focused on international commercial and investment arbitration. There she was involved in ICC, ICSID and CCJA (OHADA) arbitration proceedings.

EDUCATION

- Columbia Law School
LL.M., Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar.
- Université Paris-Est Créteil Val de Marne (UPEC)
Postgraduate degree in International Business Litigation.
- Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas
Master II in International Economic Law;
Master I in International Private Law;
Certificate of International Legal Studies with the Institute of High International Studies.

MEMBERSHIPS

Marine is part of the Young ICCA Mentoring Programme and a manager at Delos dispute resolution.

MEYER FABRE AVOCATS

53 avenue de Breteuil, 75007 Paris,

T: +33 (0)1 44 38 72 30 – F: +33 (0)1 44 38 72 31

SELARL au capital de 11.000 €, RCS Paris n° 517 565 362

Palais: C0091

www.meyerfabre.com